

ABSTRACT

A steam on demand generator uses a stainless steel cup and cap arrangement and hollow cone spray nozzle. The nozzle directs a cone of water onto a wall of the cup. A heating device and a thermocouple are brazed to the cup, with the thermocouple
5 positioned on a part of the wall to enhance control of the operation and steam generation.